

Solo Commercial ATE Insurance

Come to Temple directly for competitive premiums that are deferred and contingent.

Commercial ATE insurance for more valuable and complex individual cases requiring additional scrutiny

There will always be those cases that need some time to assess because of their complexity, value and importance to the client. Often these cases will need cover of £1m or more.

Solo ATE insurance is the path to higher limits of indemnity at competitive rates for important cases. You will be working with an underwriting team with more than 50 years' experience as litigators and an ATE provider that's been in the business for more than 20 years.

How does it work?

- Just complete our proposal form, let us know if you'd like disbursement funding and send us the key documents to enable us to assess the case. We aim to respond to you within 10 working days and will often be able to give you an indication of the premium earlier than that.
- Expect some challenging questions but if we insure your client, they will have the full benefit of UK based, "A" rated insurance that protects your client from adverse costs and insures their own disbursements.

What makes 'Solo' special?

- Better suited for more complex cases
- Allows you to get all the information and documents you want the underwriter to see

- Gives you the flexibility to set out any unique and important features of the case or characteristics of your clients that need to be addressed in the insurance you want us to offer
- Cover for up to £2m with premiums on a fully deferred and contingent basis

What are the advantages of commercial ATE cover from Temple?

- UK based "A rated" insurer
- Market-leading premium rates
- Deferred and contingent premium always available
- Premium reductions to aid settlement no charge for sending in referrals/proposals
- Compatible with any retainer

Your trusted insurance partner

Always Deferred and Contingent: why we offer this, and why it matters

In short, there is nothing to pay if the claim fails and, if you win, nothing to pay until your client has received their damages.

- This principle is at the heart of our ATE insurance offering - we have always believed this works best for your clients.
- For no initial cost, they have the peace of mind and protection they need - throughout the life of the case.
- If things don't work out, we step in and pick up the tab. If the claim is successful, only then will your client have anything to pay.

Don't just take our word for it:

'We are writing to record our positive experience in working with Temple. From the outset we found Temple be very responsive on all occasions - in relation to the original application for cover, during the ongoing proceedings (including amendments to the claim) and then in settling the claim. We have enjoyed working with you and would certainly recommend you to other practitioners.'
